Missions:

Week 12 – August 19, 2007

What is Capitol Hill Baptist Church’s vision for engagement in global missions?

1. A vision to encourage workers on the field and to partner with them in a manner worthy of God.

A. Support fewer missionaries to the glory of God.

B. Support our workers spiritually, not just financially.

C. Concentrate our resources on a specific region and with a specific entity.

D. Meaningful short-term trips that are really helpful to people on the field.

2. A vision to keep the local church central in our missionary engagement:

A. Importance of having a clear view of healthy church life.

B. Every church member called to be involved in global evangelism.

C. Sending people out in CP teams from CHBC that are almost like a small church themselves.

D. Training people here at CHBC before they are sent out.

3. A vision to focus on church planting among un-reached people groups

A. A particular focus on Central Asia.

B. A focus on evangelism that results in churches not isolated Christians

4. A vision of Missions that naturally flows from a broad Biblical worldview.

A. Focusing on preaching the Word, not on Missions itself.

B. Focus on general Christian growth and well-rounded maturity.

C. Focus on encouraging fruitfulness here in DC for every CHBC member.
