Biblical Manhood and Womanhood – Lesson 2

Biblical Masculinity, Part 1

I. Introduction: What does it mean to be a man?

II. Review

- Gen 1:26-27: Men and women equal in essence as image of God
- Gen 2: Distinct dispositions and complementary roles
- Biblical view of gender: God-given, part of our human nature

III. Opening Considerations

1. We should distinguish manhood from boyhood.
2. To live as a godly man or woman, seek godliness in general.
3. This class, though, is focused on the very specific question of what tends to characterize a godly man.
4. Whenever we study God's creation design, we need to remember that creation is fallen.

IV. Foundations for Biblical Masculinity

A. Adam, the Ground ('adamah) and Dominion

1. Gen 2:5: No man to work the ground
2. Gen 2:7: The man formed from dust of the ground
3. Gen 2:9, 15, 19: The man names the other creatures formed from the ground and so exercises dominion (Gen 1:26)
4. Gen 3:17-19: God pronounces to Adam the curse on the ground: he will have painful work until he returns to the ground in death

B. Working and Keeping

- Gen 2:15, 3:23 – Man's calling to work/cultivate the "garden" God has entrusted to him = job and relationships (Eph 5:29, 6:4)
- Keeping/watching over/guarding (Gen 2:15, 3:24)
- The Christian vision of masculinity has far less to do with being macho or "wild," and far more to do with lovingly providing for others

C. A Pattern of Responsibility

1. God created the man first, then the woman (1 Tim 2:13)
2. Gen 2:18: The woman is Adam's helper; Gen 2:23, he is the one who names her
3. Gen 3:1: The serpent tempts Eve in order to undermine Adam's authority (1 Tim 2:14)
4. Gen 3:8-9: God holds Adam responsible first for their sin
5. Gen 3:17-19: It is Adam who serves as a representative head for humanity

Note: This general pattern of responsibility becomes formalized and prescriptive in the home and in the church

V. Conclusion: Trust the Perfect Man
