

IV. Parting Challenge: Goals for our Parenting

- A. Goals for parenting: The biggest reason: that they know Christ. But we also parent so that our children learn to live under gracious, godly authority. Does your parenting prepare your child to live under God's authority?
- B. Two dangers:
- a. Legalism
 - b. License
- C. Encouragement: God's grace is sufficient!

References

Tedd Tripp's Shepherding a Child's Heart
Tedd & Margy Tripp's Instructing a Child's Heart
Ginger Plowman's Don't Make Me Count to Three!

Week 6

Obedience 101: What Do You Do When You Can't Get to the Heart?

Review

Last week: Biblical Communication

How do we communicate?

When and where do we communicate?

What do we communicate?

Before that: Getting to the Heart

Proverbs 4:23

Obedience 101 - Intro

Biblical parenting focuses on the heart, but we must deal with behavior as well. Sometimes we temporarily forgo "heart training" due to, for example:

- Particular situations
- Developmental stages

I. The Biblical Basis for Obedience

Eph 6:1, “Children, obey your parents...

- ...in the Lord...
- ...for this is right.”

II. Definition of Obedience

Obedience is the willing submission of one person to the authority of another. Essentially:

- My child does what I tell him to do.
- My child refrains from doing what I tell him not to do.

For the child, obedience is more than just doing what he is told. It means doing what he is told—

A. Without Challenge or Excuse

B. Without Delay

C. Without Grumbling or an Attitude

(A Practical Tip: Teach your children to come to you before you give them a command.)

III. Obedience from the Parent’s Perspective – several “calls”

A. A Call to Consistency

B. A Call to the Same Standard

C. A Call to Training

D. A Call to Encouragement

E. A Call to Discernment

F. A Call to Graciousness