(Romans 4:25, 5:9-10, 6:5, 8:1)

“By raising Christ from the dead, God the Father was in effect saying that he approved of Christ’s work of suffering and dying for our sins, that his work was completed, and that Christ no longer had any need to remain dead. There was no penalty left to pay for sin, no more wrath of God to bear, no more guilt or liability to punishment—all had been completely paid for, and no guilt remained. In the resurrection, God was saying to Christ, ‘I approve of what you have done, and you find favor in my sight.’...If God raised us up with him (Eph 2:6), then, by virtue of our union with Christ, God’s declaration of approval of Christ is also his declaration of approval of us”
