Core Seminars—Singleness and Courtship

The Gift & Freedom of Singleness (Week 2)

A Really Quick Overview of 1 Cor 7

- 7:1-7—asceticism? Get married and fulfill your marital duty.
- 7:8-9—To the unmarried and widows: stay single like Paul, but if they burn, get married.
- 7:10-11—to the married: Don't divorce; if you do, either be reconciled or stay unmarried.
- 7:12-16—to the married with unbelieving spouse: Stay married if they are willing but if they leave, let them go.
- 7:12-24—to each one in the church: Don't feel that your earthly status needs to change when God calls you to be a Christian.
- 7:25-38—to the virgins (NIV) or betrothed (ESV): remain as you are. The time is short (v. 29).
- 7:39-40—to the widows: They are free to remarry if their husband dies but should only marry a Christian.

The Gift of Singleness (1 Cor 7:7)

1. Singleness is for some, not others.
2. Singleness is not some mystical or magical ability to resist sexual temptation and reject marriage.
3. The gift of singleness is a recognition that God has given the gift of celibacy for a season (or for a few, maybe a lifetime).
  - a. Not a status, i.e., single or married.
  - b. The gift = spiritually motivated for singleness, live a self-controlled life, and content with what God has given.
4. If you have the gift, you'll be content like Paul (Phil 4:11-13).
5. Some singles can choose to remain single for a season (or even a lifetime).
6. Some singles should get married.
  - a. Just because you "burn" (v. 9) doesn't mean you are guaranteed marriage.
  - b. If you struggle with internet porn then you are burning. Don't wait to "fix" the problem.
  - c. Contentment in singleness and an openness to marriage are not mutually exclusive.
